NOTICE TO MARRIED APPLICANTS: No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement under s.766.59, Wis. Stats., or court decree under s.766.70, Wis. Stats., adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted or an open-end credit plan is entered into, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision.

NOTICE: We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

For the purpose of obtaining the credit described above, and any future credit granted to the undersigned by the creditor named above, the undersigned, jointly and severally, (1) represent that the above statements are true and complete, (2) authorize the creditor named above, or its agents, to verify them and obtain additional information concerning our credit, employment history or any other information, including credit reports (although creditor may rely on these statements without any further verification), to furnish, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, credit experience with me to others, and to answer any questions about our credit experience and other financial relationships with the creditor, and (3) agree to the provisions of any rules, regulations or agreements of the creditor governing such credit. This application is creditor's property.

The undersigned understand that it may be a federal crime punishable by fine or imprisonment or both to knowingly make any false statements concerning any of the above facts.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who obtains credit. What this means for you: When you obtain credit, we will ask you for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.
